

What you have to do to complete the second year units for the Certificate in Repair, Restoration and Conservation of Clocks / Watches – Clock Pathway (“Final Grade Part II”):-

These units are normally sat by candidates after following a full time one-year programme of study. Students who have completed the third grade of the Distance Learning Course programme or personal courses of study should enter these units for the clock pathway.

Unit	Title	What the Candidate has to do	Time allotted	Location
3	Theory of Clocks and Watches and their Repair	Sit a written exam.	2½ Hour written exam	Examination Centre
5	Practical Repair of Clocks.	i) Prepare a ‘Record of Repairs’ based on repairs carried out on ten clocks. ii) Submit a large scale drawing of a Graham dead-beat escapement with the Record of Repairs. iii) Service, identify and correct faults in a carriage clock.	Candidate’s own time. 8 Hours	Candidate’s workshop. Examination Centre
6	The Theory of Clocks, Clock Restoration and Conservation	Sit a written exam.	2½ Hour written exam	Examination Centre
7	Practical Clockmaking Techniques	Make an escape wheel and design and make pallets for a dead-beat escapement.	3 weeks	Candidate’s workshop
8	The Practical Restoration / Conservation of Clocks	Prepare a ‘Portfolio’ detailing the restoration / conservation of five clocks.	Candidate’s own time.	Candidate’s workshop