Meals at Upton Hall – Please note that continental breakfast is on a self-service basis in the tearoom, followed by a hot or cold lunch. Beverages are available from the Student Common Room and students are invited to help themselves.

Upton Hall operates a No Alcohol and No Smoking Policy.

Evening meals are available 7 days a week in the village pub 'The Cross Keys'. (There are takeaways, restaurants and bars in the nearby towns of Southwell and Newark).

You should plan to arrive at Upton Hall between 8.45am and 9am on the first day of the seminar for Registration and Orientation. Access cannot be gained prior to this time. IN THE EVENT OF A DELAY OR AN EMERGENCY PLEASE TELEPHONE 01636 817620 AFTER OFFICE HOURS AND AT WEEKENDS. Courses are subject to change or cancellation at short notice and will only take place if sufficient participants are available. We cannot guarantee that a particular tutor will be teaching the course.

Upton Hall is an old building, which has been modified and adapted many times over the years, so please be particularly alert to potential hazards during your stay. Please exercise particular caution on the stairs, some of which are narrow, twisting and uneven, and take extra care during the hours of darkness. If you notice a hazard please report it as soon as possible to your tutor or to any member of staff, so that appropriate action can be taken.

A certificate of attendance is awarded to all students who complete each seminar.
